FOREST DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATIONS

Simla-2, the 5th August, 1975

No. Ft. 8-1/73-SF.—Whereas it is considered necessary that portion of the forests specified in the schedule annexed to this notification shall be closed for a period of 10 years and that the rights of private persons in or over such portion shall be suspended during such period for the purpose of regeneration and artificial restocking in order to check erosion in soil conservation; and whereas the remainder of such forest is sufficient, and in a locality reasonably convenient, for the due exercise of the rights suspended in the portion so closed and whereas it is further considered necessary to prohibit the doing of any or all of the acts mentioned in clause (c) of section 30 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (b) & (c) of section 30 of the Indian Forest Act XVI of 1927 the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to declare that portion of Beena (Part 'A' and 'B' locally called) Part A=Madhan Part B=Chowk) situated in Suket Range, Suket Forest Division, Bilaspur Forest Circle, Himachal Pradesh as per schedule given below, shall be closed for a period of 10 years from the date of this notification and that the rights of private persons in or over such portion shall remain suspended during the said period of 10 years (ten years) and he is further pleased to prohibit from the date of this notification:—

- (i) the quarrying and removal of stone,
- (ii) the burning of lime and charcoal,
- (iii) the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for buildings, for herding cattle or for any other purpose,
- (iv) grazing by all kinds of animals throughout the year,
- (v) topping and cutting of trees and bushes throughout the year,
- (vi) cutting of grass throughout the year, and
- (viii) the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process or removal of any forest produce in or over or from the portion so closed.

The Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to declare under clause (b) of section 30 of Indian Forest Act, 1927 that the portions of the protected forests specified in the schedule, appended to this notification and situated in Kulu district shall be closed for the purpose of regeneration for a period of fifteen years from the date of this notification or for such shorter period as may be deemed sufficient and that the rights of private persons in or over the said areas shall be suspended during the said period. He is further pleased to prohibit from the date of issue of this notification under clause (c) of section 30 of the said Act, the collection or removal of forest produce and herding of cattle in or over such portions except with the permission in writing of the Divisional Forest Officer, Kulu Forest Division. The remaining area is sufficient to meet with the requirements of the local people.

- (iii) In addition to the actual fare or mileage as per item (i) and (ii) above, a member shall draw daily allowance for the entire absence from his permanent place of residence starting with departure from that place and ending with arrival at that place, at the same rate and subject to the same terms and conditions as apply to grade I officers of the State Government.

2. DAILY ALLOWANCE:

- (i) Non-official members be entitled to draw daily allowance for each day of the meeting at the highest rate as admissible to a Government servant of the First Grade for the respective locality.
- (ii) In addition to daily allowance for the day(s) of the meeting, a member shall also be entitled to daily allowance for halt on tour at out station in connection with the affairs of the Committee as under:—

- | | |
|--|------|
| (a) If the absence from headquarters does not exceed 6 hours .. | 30% |
| (b) If the absence from headquarters exceeds 6 hours but does not exceed 12 hours .. | 50% |
| (c) If the absence from headquarters exceeds 12 hours .. | full |

3. CONVEYANCE ALLOWANCE:

A member, resident at a place where the meeting of the Committee is held will not be entitled to travelling and daily allowances on the scales indicated above, but will be allowed only the actual cost of conveyance hire, subjects to a maximum of Rs. 10.00 per day. Before, the claim is actually paid the controlling officer should verify the claims and satisfy himself after obtaining such details as may be considered necessary, that the actual expenditure was not less than the amount claimed.

If such a member used his own car, he will be granted mileage allowance at the rates admissible to officials of the First Grade subject to a maximum of Rs. 10.00 per day.

4. The travelling and daily allowance will be admissible to a member on production of a certificate by him to the effect that he has not drawn any travelling or daily allowance for the same journey and halts from any other Government source.

5. The members will be eligible for travelling allowance for the journeys actually performed in connection with the meetings of the Committee from and to the place of their permanent residence to be named in advance. If any member performs a journey from a place other than the place of his permanent residence to attend a meeting of the committee or returns to the place other than the place of his permanent residence after the termination of the meeting, travelling allowance shall be worked out on the basis of the distance actually travelled or the distance between the place of permanent residence and the venue of the meeting whichever is less.

6. Members of Parliament.—The member of Parliament on the Committee in respect of journeys performed by him by rail, road, air and steamer in connection with the work of Committee, shall be entitled to T. A./D. A. on the same scale as is admissible to him under Salaries and Allowances of Members of Parliament Act as amended from time to time.

7. Member of Vidhan Sabha.—The non-official members who are members of the Vidhan Sabha shall be entitled to T.A./D.A. in respect of journeys performed in connection with the work of the Committee on the scale is admissible to them under Salaries and Allowances of Members of Legislative Assembly Act as amended from time to time.

8. The members will not be entitled to daily allowance in connection with their assignment, when the Vidhan Sabha or the Vidhan Sabha Committee on which the members are serving is in session as they will be drawing their daily allowance under the Salaries and Allowances of Members of the Legislative Assembly (H.P.) Act, 1971, from the Vidhan Sabha. However, if they certify, that they were prevented from attending the session of the House or the Vidhan Sabha Committee and did not draw any daily allowance from the Vidhan Sabha, they would be entitled to daily allowance at the rate as prescribed.

9. The provisions of rule 4.17 and 6.1 of the Himachal Pradesh Treasury Rules will apply mutatis mutandis in the case of overpayment made on account of travelling allowance to non-official members.

10. The members will also not draw T.A. and D.A. including conveyance allowance which will disqualify them from the Vidhan Sabha.

11. The Director of Industries, H. P. will be the Controlling Officer in regard to the countersigning the travelling allowance bills of the non-official members and the travelling allowance bills will be prepared in the Directorate of Industries, Himachal Pradesh.

12. The expenditure will be debitable to read "320—Industries Sub-Major Head A—General Direction Administration".

P. K. MATTOO,
Secretary.

NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 20th August, 1975

No. LLR-E(9)7/75.—The following Acts recently passed by Parliament which have already been published in the Gazette of India, Extra ordinary, Part II, Section I, are hereby republished in the Himachal Pradesh Government Rajpatra, for the information of general public:—

1. The Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities (Amendment) Act, 1975 (35 of 1975).
2. The Constitution (Thirty-eighth Amendment) Act, 1975.

M. C. PADAM,
Under Secretary.

THE CONSERVATION OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE AND PREVENTION OF SMUGGLING ACTIVITIES (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1975

(ACT No. 35 OF 1975)

to amend the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities Act, 1974.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities (Amendment) Act, 1975.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of July, 1975.

2. Insertion of new section 5A.—In the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities Act, 1974 (52 of 1974) hereinafter referred to as the principal Act, after section 5, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“5A. Grounds of detention severable.—Where a person has been detained in pursuance of an order of detention under sub-section (1) of section 3 which has been made on two or more grounds, such order of detention shall be deemed to have been made separately on each of such grounds and accordingly—

- (a) such order shall not be deemed to be invalid or inoperative merely because one or some of the grounds is or are—
 - (i) vague,
 - (ii) non-existent,
 - (iii) not relevant,
 - (iv) not connected or not proximately connected with such person, or
- (v) invalid for any other reason whatsoever, and it is not therefore possible to hold that the Government or officer making such order would have been satisfied as provided in sub-section (1) of section 3 with reference the remaining ground or grounds and made the order of detention;
- (b) the Government or officer making the order of detention shall be deemed to have made the order of detention under the said sub-section (1) after being satisfied as provided in that sub-section with reference to the remaining ground or grounds.”

3. Amendment of section 12.—In section 12 of the principal Act, after sub-section (5), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law and save as otherwise provided in this section, no person against whom a detention order made under this Act, is in force shall be released whether on bail or bail bond or otherwise.”

4. Insertion of new section 12A.—After section 12 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“12A. Special provisions for dealing with emergency.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any rules of natural justice, the provisions of this section shall have effect during the period of operation of the Proclamation of Emergency issued under clause (1) of article 352 of the Constitution on the 3rd day of December, 1971, or the Proclamation of Emergency issued under that clause on the 25th day of June, 1975, or a period of twelve months from the 25th day of June, 1975, whichever period is the shortest.

(2) When making an order of detention under this Act against any person after the commencement of the Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities (Amendment) Act, 1975, the Central Government or the State Government or, as the case may be, the officer making the order of detention shall consider whether the detention of such person under this Act is necessary for dealing effectively with the emergency in respect of which the Proclamations referred to in sub-section (1) have been issued (hereafter in this section referred to as the emergency) and if, on such consideration, the Central Government or the State Government or, as the case may be, the officer is satisfied that it is necessary to detain such person for effectively dealing with the emergency, that Government or officer may make a declaration to that effect and communicate a copy of the declaration to the person concerned:

Provided that where such declaration is made by an officer, it shall be reviewed by the appropriate Government within fifteen days from the date of making of the declaration and such declaration shall cease to have effect unless it is confirmed by that Government, after such review, within the said period of fifteen days.

- (3) The question whether the detention of any person in respect of whom a declaration has been made under sub-section (2) continues to be necessary for effectively dealing with the emergency shall be reconsidered by the appropriate Government within four months from the date of such declaration and thereafter at intervals not exceeding four months, and if, on such reconsideration, it appears to the appropriate Government that the detention of the person is no longer necessary for effectively dealing with the emergency, that Government may revoke the declaration.
- (4) In making any consideration, review or reconsideration under sub-section (2) or (3), the appropriate Government or officer may, if such Government or officer considers it to be against the public interest to do otherwise, act on the basis of the information and materials in its or his possession without disclosing the facts or giving an opportunity of making a representation to the person concerned.
- (5) It shall not be necessary to disclose to any person detained under a detention order to which the provisions of sub-section (2) apply, the grounds on which the order has been made during the period the declaration made in respect of such person under that sub-section is in force, and, accordingly, such period shall not be taken into account for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 3.
- (6) In the case of every person detained under a detention order to which the provisions of sub-section (2) apply, being a person in respect of whom a declaration has been made thereunder, the period during which such declaration is in force shall not be taken into account for the purpose of computing—
 - (i) the periods specified in clauses (b) and (c) of section 8;
 - (ii) the periods of “one year” and “five weeks” specified in sub-section (1), the period of “one year” specified in sub-section (2) (i), and the period of “six months” specified in sub-section (3), of section 9.”

5. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Conservation of Foreign Exchange and Prevention of Smuggling Activities (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 (6 of 1975), is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the principal Act, as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the principal Act as amended by this Act.

Assented to on 1st August, 1975.

THE CONSTITUTION (THIRTY-EIGHTH AMENDMENT) ACT, 1975

AN

further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Constitution (Thirty-eighth Amendment) Act, 1975.

2. Amendment of article 123.—In article 123 of the Constitution, after clause (3), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the satisfaction of the President mentioned in clause (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground.”

3. Amendment of article 213.—In article 213 of the Constitution, after clause (3), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the satisfaction of the Governor mentioned in clause (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground.”

4. Amendment of article 239B.—In article 239 B of the Constitution, after clause (3), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the satisfaction of the administrator mentioned in clause (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground.”

5. Amendment of article 352.—In article 352 of the Constitution, after clause (3), the following clauses shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(4) The power conferred on the President by this article shall include the power to issue different Proclamations on different grounds, being war or external aggression or internal disturbance or imminent danger of war or external aggression or internal disturbance, whether or not there is a Proclamation already issued by the President under clause (1) and such Proclamation is in operation.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution,—

(a) the satisfaction of the President mentioned in clause (1) and clause (3) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground;

(b) subject to the provisions of clause (2), neither the Supreme Court nor any other court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any question, on any ground, regarding the validity of—

(i) a declaration made by Proclamation by the President to the effect stated in clause (1); or

(ii) the continued operation of such Proclamation.”

6. Amendment of article 356.—In article 356 of the Constitution, after clause (4), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(5) Notwithstanding anything in his Constitution, the satisfaction of the President mentioned in clause (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground.”

7. Amendment of article 359.—In article 359 of the Constitution, after clause (1), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(1A) While an order made under clause (1) mentioning any of the rights conferred by Part III is in operation, nothing in that Part conferring those rights shall restrict the power of the State as defined in the said Part to make any law or to take any executive action which the State would but for the provisions contained in that Part be competent to make or to take, but any law so made shall, to the extent of the incompetency, cease to have effect as soon as the order aforesaid ceases to operate, except as respects things done or omitted to be done before the law so ceases to have effect.”

8. Amendment of article 360.—In article 360 of the Constitution, after clause (4), the following clause shall be inserted, and shall be deemed always to have been inserted, namely:—

“(5) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution,—

(a) the satisfaction of the President mentioned in clause (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be questioned in any court on any ground;

(b) subject to the provisions of clause (2), neither the Supreme Court nor any other court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any question, on any ground, regarding the validity of—

(i) a declaration made by Proclamation by the President to the effect stated in clause (1); or

(ii) the continued operation of such Proclamation.”
